This legislation first of all establishes that those who process personal data are obliged to inform the interested party regarding the data subject to processing and parameters functional to their processing, which, in any case, must be performed in good faith, legally and transparently, protecting your confidentiality and rights. Therefore, pursuant to the provisions of Art. 13 of Legislative Decree no.196/2003, we hereby provide you with the following information:

Nature of the data processed and aim of the processing

TOSCANA REGIONALE MARITTIMA S.P.A., a company with a sole shareholder - TOREMAR, as a result of booking and passenger boarding operations, acquires data regarding the passengers for purposes connected and/or instrumental to the performance of its activities and the management of the relationships established with them, as well as for fulfilling the obligations laid down by law, regulations, EU legislation, provisions issued by Authorities authorised to do so by law and by supervisory and control bodies.

Method of processing

The Passengers' data is processed using tools and procedures such as to ensure their security and confidentiality, and the processing may be performed both using hard copy documents, and with the help of electronic tools.

Obligation or right to provide data and consequences of refusal to do so

The Passengers' personal data are strictly functional to establishing and fulfilling the contractual relationship, and any refusal to provide such data and to consent to their processing will thus make it objectively impossible for TOSCANA REGIONALE MARITTIMA S.P.A., a company with a sole shareholder - to establish and perform the contractual obligations undertaken in their regard.

Communication and divulgation

The Passengers' data will not be "divulged" by us, i.e. made known to unspecified subjects in any way, nor will we make them available or allow their consultation. We may however "communicate" the Passengers' data, i.e. make them known to one or more specified subjects, as follows:

- to subjects who may access your data in compliance with the provision of law, regulations or EU legislation, within the scope of such regulations;
- to subjects who need to access your data for aims auxiliary to the relationship between you and us, within the limits strictly necessary for performing the auxiliary tasks entrusted to them (for example: banks for payments);
- to other public bodies as provided for under law.

Your rights

Pursuant to Art. 7 of Legislative Decree 196/2003, customers are entitled at any time to receive confirmation as to whether we are in possession of their data and to be informed of their content and origin, to check that they are correct and to ask for them to be supplemented, updated, or rectified. They are moreover entitled to ask for them to be deleted, made anonymous or to request that data processed in the violation of law be blocked, as well as to oppose their processing in any case, for legitimate reasons. In order to exercise such rights, the Passenger may directly contact our Company, which is the Data Controller.
