5. Methods of data processing

The processing of personal data will be carried out exclusively by expressly authorized personnel, in such a way as to guarantee the confidentiality of the identity of the Reporting Person and of the content of internal reports and related documentation, adopting appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect them from unauthorized or unlawful access, destruction, loss of integrity and confidentiality, even accidental. In order to guarantee the confidentiality of the Reporting Person for the entire duration of the management of the internal report, the identity of the same will be known by the parties expressly authorized to manage the reports. Except in cases where liability for slander and defamation can be established pursuant to the provisions of the Criminal Code or Article 2043 of the Italian Civil Code or, where applicable, in the context of criminal proceedings and in the manner and within the limits of the provisions of Article 329 of the Code of Criminal Procedure., the identity of the Reporting Person is protected in any context after the report. 6. Provision of data

The provision of the Reporting Person's personal data is optional. Failure to provide them could, however, jeopardize the investigation of the report: anonymous reports, in fact, will be taken into consideration only if they are adequately detailed and made in great detail, so as to bring to light facts and situations related to specific contexts.

7. Rights of the data subjects

The rights referred to in Articles 15-22 of the GDPR may be exercised, within the limits of the provisions of Article 2-undecies, paragraph 3, of Legislative Decree no. 196/2003, by contacting the Data Controller through the contacts indicated above. In particular, the rights identified above cannot be exercised by means of a request to the Data Controller, or by complaint pursuant to Article 77 of the GDPR to the Data Protection Authority, if the exercise of these rights may result in an actual and concrete prejudice to the confidentiality of the identity of the person reporting violations of which he or she has become aware due to his or her employment relationship or the functions performed. The exercise of the aforementioned rights may, in any case, be delayed, limited or excluded by reasoned communication made without delay by the Data Controller, unless the communication could compromise the purpose of the limitation, for the time and to the extent that this constitutes a necessary and proportionate measure, taking into account the fundamental rights and legitimate interests of the Reporting Person, of the Person involved or of the persons involved in various ways in the reports. In such cases, pursuant to art. 2-undecies, par. 3, of Legislative Decree no. 196/2003, the Data Subject has the right to exercise the aforementioned rights through the Guarantor Authority in the manner set out in art. 160 of the aforementioned legislative decree. In cases where you believe that the processing of your personal data is in violation of the provisions of the GDPR, you may lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Authority, as provided for by art. 77 of the GDPR itself (with the exclusion of the limitations on the exercise of the rights set out above and provided for by Article 2-undecies, paragraph 3, of Legislative Decree no. 196/2003), or to take legal action (Article 79 of the GDPR).
